

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Louis Graslie has demonstrated outstanding dedication in the area of education; and,

WHEREAS, Louis' warmth and compassion for each individual student has contributed to their growth; and,

WHEREAS, Louis has spent the last 38 years in South Dakota's school system working with the youth of this state; and,

WHEREAS, Louis graduated from Black Hills State College in 1952 with a degree in Social Science and Physical Education, was named to B.H.S.C. Coaching Hall of Fame, and was the South Dakota Superintendent of the Year in 1937-88; and,

WHEREAS, It has now come time for Louis Graslie to retire, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 31, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join his students, friends and relatives in wishing him an enjoyable retirement and express our gratitude for his exceptional contribution to South Dakota's educational system.

LOUIS GRASLIE DAY

ATTEST:

Joyce Hazeltime
JOYCE HAZELTIME, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR